

"Here With Me (R.I.P. Charles Haddon)"

A million thoughts rushing through my head i sit here day and night try to find the words to say

If i could turn the clock back i wonder, would you stay or would you laugh and tell me "it's OK... you'll find your own way"

Can't bring you back nothing that i do or say can erase the time or the pictures from my mind

All that's left are memories of songs you've left behind you lost the war against yourself or have you won in your own mind maybe i'm the one who's blind...

I try to talk to you but i just run against a wall you're looking down at me I wonder what you see The beginning of a new life or the end of all your dreams

I see you smiling at me like you did when you were here with me
